Many thanks to everyone who made our Easter Celebrations so special this year. From those who created the stations of the cross, to the fabulous flowers we have in church, to the wonderful music, to the great readings and intercessions and everything else – this year Easter was very special, and it is because so many gave so much in the celebrating of it.....

Please particularly pray at this time for our Bishop Gregor Duncan following his recent stroke. We are told he is making very good progress, and is looking forward to returning to work shortly after Easter. Today is Bishop Gregor's seventh anniversary of his consecration.

In days gone by at St. Cyprian's there was a print of the picture “Christ of St. John of the Cross” by Salvador Dali, hung at the end of the hall. It disappeared into the loft before I arrived. We “found” it some time ago with the glass broken, but it has been hanging in the choir vestry. A couple of people kindly offered to pay for the picture to be re-glazed, and we have now hung it temporarily in church behind the piano. Do you like it there? Do you think there is somewhere better it could go? Please let the Rector know what you think. It is a truly amazing picture, and the original in the Kelvingrove Gallery is utterly stunning. We hope our version will enhance our church for many years to come.

The ACTS study groups are soon to start, and this year will be looking at the book “Being Disciples” by Rowan Williams, the former Archbishop of Canterbury. The book will be available at the first meeting of each group, and the study groups will last 6 weeks. There are two groups:

St. Mary's Parish Church Session House Wednesdays 1.00-2.30pm from May 3rd 2016

Harestanes Community Centre In the Primary School grounds Tuesdays 7.30-9.00pm from May 2nd 2016
