St. Cyprian's Church has a lot of historical items and textiles, many of which are simply hidden in cupboards or the attic in our church. A couple of years ago we displayed some of these in church. For the next couple of months some of these items, plus some we didn't display for security reasons will make up a small display in the Auld Kirk Museum on Cowgate - along with a couple of other larger exhibitions. We get a couple of display cabinets! If you are in Kirky - why not go and have a look - but check what time the museum is open first!

Jackie Barker would like to thank everyone who donated to the Kirkintilloch Food Bank Christmas Appeal – much appreciated!
