St. Cyprian's Church has a lot of historical items and textiles, many of which are simply hidden in cupboards or the attic in our church. A couple of years ago we displayed some of these in church. For the next couple of months some of these items, plus some we didn't display for security reasons will make up a small display in the Auld Kirk Museum on Cowgate - along with a couple of other larger exhibitions. We get a couple of display cabinets! If you are in Kirky - why not go and have a look - but check what time the museum is open first!

The Bible Society is holding a Burns afternoon tea on Thursday 19th January at 2pm in Lenzie Union Parish Church. Tickets £4 each or £15 for a table of 4 from Glenis Tavener or Pat Hindle.
