From our Mother's Union:

Our final 'meeting' this year will be a meal out at Mariana's in Kirkintilloch on Wednesday 14th June at 7.30pm, to which anyone can come. Further details to follow – but get the date in the diary!!!!

Praise in the Park

Next Sunday - 11th June – is
"Praise in the Park" 7.00pm
in Peel Park.

This service is organised by ACTS Kirkintilloch and Lenzie (the local umbrella organisation for churches in our area) and welcomes everyone from all of the local churches. If you are free, why not come along. If wet the service is in St. Ninian's Church Hall.

This coming Thursday (8th June) is election day, when our church is used as a polling station. This doesn't affect the things we do at church, but it's great to see lots more people around our buildings. Please pray that those who come to our church, perhaps those who have never been in the building before, will be attracted to come and see more of our life .

"As humans we have two great spiritual needs. The first is forgiveness, which God has made possible by sending His Son into the world to die for our sins. Our second need, however, is for goodness, which God also made possible by sending the Holy Spirit to dwell within us."

— Billy Graham,
