Our Easter celebrations are very special, and a lot of people work hard to help us in those celebrations. Easter is particularly demanding of those people who provide the music for our worship. To them we give special thanks.

Alleluia – Christ is Risen from the dead!!!

Through March our Mother's Union has been collecting items for the Kirkintilloch Foodbank. There is a box at the back of church to collect items. At the moment the foodbank is particularly looking for:

UHT 1 litre milk cartons
1 litre cartons apple/orange juice
Tinned sweetcorn Tinned potatoes
Packets of cereal Men's toiletries

Thanks to all who have donated. If you have stuff you plan to give please pass it on SOON, as our Mothers' Union intend to deliver the stuff this week!
