The Weekly Newsletter for
St. Cyprian's Church, Lenzie
- 14th October
Trinity 20

Services today
9.15am – Eucharist
10.30am – Eucharist

Today we welcome Rev. Sally Gorton who will be taking our services.

Please note – there will be no service
at 3.00pm next Sunday - 21st October

A number of people asked me what the music was I played in the service last week. The song was obviously “Somewhere Over the Rainbow,” and was sung by someone called Israel Kamakawiwo’ole (he is a Hawaiian singer). If you want to hear any of his music, just put the name into Utube and there are lots of songs by him.

We have had a very busy couple of weekends, including a concert, harvest, Auto-Jumble, Mother's Union exhibition etc. Can I thank everyone for all that they have done to make those events a success.

We have had to have a significant amount of work in our grounds, removing a number of trees which were either a risk or reached the end of their lives. The total cost for removing the three is £1,000. If anyone would like to make a donation towards these costs, please put it in one of the envelopes available in church, or any envelope and put it on the collection plate. If we get more than needed, we will use that to further improve our church grounds.

We have Holy Communion on Thursday Morning at 10.00am, followed by Tea or Coffee: everyone welcome.

if you would like to get something into the Link please let our Rector Les Ireland know on 0141-776 3866 or e-mail rector@stcyprianslenzie.com by teatime on Wednesday evenings. Thanks.

Two Eskimos sitting in a kayak were chilly, so they lit a fire in the craft. Unsurprisingly it sank, proving once again that you can't have your kayak and heat it too.
