In our church over recent years it has become a tradition to do something different as a general activity through advent to add something “alternative” to the decorations of our church. Last year had the stable mobile. The previous year we had alternative advent candles, the year before that the “Frankenstein Crib scene” – unforgettable!!!! This year we have some ideas.....

If you want to get involved – and everyone is welcome to help, however fit and healthy, however young and old – then come along on any or all of the Monday afternoons through Advent, from 1pm – 3pm. We be there on the 28th November (co-inciding with Craft and Chat), 5th, 12th and 19th December.

It is a great fun afternoon, and we sup tea and coffee, but it adds something new to our church for our Christmas celebrations.

“Politicians compete for the highest offices. Business tycoons scramble for a bigger and bigger piece of the pie. Armies march and scientists study and philosophers philosophise and preachers preach and labourers sweat. But in that silent baby, lying in that humble manger, there pulses more potential power and wisdom and grace and aliveness than all the rest of us can imagine.”
