Today - 8th June - is Pentecost Sunday, when we remember the Holy Spirit coming on the early disciples to launch the church, and to show the power of God available to God's people.

As it is Pentecost, our morning service at 10.30am will be a healing service - it will include the opportunity for those who come to worship to receive special prayer with the laying-on of hands. It may be because of illness, or sadness, or sorrow, or fear - whatever the need we will pray for you.

Les, our Rector, has written a new book called: "Up the Crow Road" - thoughts inspired by the famous road from Lennoxtown to Fintry. There are copies available in church for £3, with all proceeds coming to St. Cyprian's Church.

If you would like to get something into the Link next week please let Les our Rector have it before teatime on Wednesday - 776 3866 or email Les 949@btinternet.com
