NEXT WEEKEND.....

Saturday 14th November we will be holding a morning on healing, with teaching and worship. This starts at 10 and goes through to 1pm, but you are welcome to stay for lunch after – please bring some butties. This is from the Rector's role as Diocesan Healing Advisor, and is open to people throughout the diocese.

Sunday 15th November is our Annual General Meeting after our service at around 11.45. Please come along to this very important event.

Also on the Sunday after church we would like to set up the church ready for the Christmas Fair, so please send along your muscled relatives to help!!!

Our Christmas Fair is on the 21st November. We need all sorts of things! This is a sample: Homemade stuff: Jams. Marmalade. Pickle. Cakes. Biscuits..... Craft stuff – knitted, carved, whittled, crochet-ed, painted..... Plants..... Good quality collectibles, fancy goods, bric-a-brac, jewellery, Christmas stuff, anything.....

TOYS & KIDS STUFF particularly!!!!

Bring it in – lets fill the Rector's vestry in the next couple of weeks so he has to get dressed up outside in the snow and frost and rain.....

If you know of anyone – relatives or friends – who could help, please ask them, and let us know.....

The next MU meeting is on Wednesday 11th November 7.30 pm – when they will be making dried flower arrangements for our stall at the Christmas Fair. All welcome.

The next Craft and Chat is on Monday 9th Nov, 1 – 3pm. All welcome, bring you knitting, or we've got plenty you could do.....

Today, Sunday there is a remembrance service at the war memorial on the Woodilee estate at 2.00pm, which we co-ordinate. Come along if you are free.

Many thanks to everyone who helped at the concert last Sunday. It as a good concert, but hugely demanding on church members to provide the great hospitality we did. So many thanks for all that everyone did.
