Today – 9th November – is Remembrance Sunday. We will particularly be marking this in our main service at 10.30am, which will include the two minutes silence, as well as remembering those from St. Cyprian's who were killed in the two great wars.

St. Cyprian's also organises the Remembrance Service on the Woodilee Estate. This service is at 2.00pm, at the Woodilee memorial. Everyone is welcome, and if you want to know where the memorial is, please ask the Rector.

The Mother's Union meets this coming Wednesday – 12th Nov at 1.30pm at church. All welcome.

Our Christmas Fair is on Saturday 22nd
November, from 10am – 3.00pm.

Wanted for Christmas Fair: Jewellery, Books, Home Baking and Children's stuff – toys,
books, games etc. Please bring suitable stuff into church, or have a word with the Rector
if it needs collecting.

If you haven't already been "nobbled," but would like to help in any way,, again have a word with the Rector or Jacquie Stother...

Next Sunday – 16th November – is our Annual General Meeting, after our morning service at about 12.00pm. Please come along.

This year we have four vacancies on the Vestry (the Church Council). If you might be interested in joining the vestry which meets 4-5 times a year, please have a word with the Rector or with our Secretary Mary Boyd to find out more. We would particularly like to see a "regular" at our 9.15pm service joining us to represent those who come to that service.

Monday 10th November is our next "Creative Chat" afternoon from 1.30pm in the vestry. Just come along and create!!!! Bring your knitting, or art, or crochet or.....

On Saturday 29th November at 7.30pm we have the first of our Winter Concerts entitled "A taste of Italy": Tickets are £10 from Jaquie Stother or the Rector, or phone 07702224458, including cheese and wine.

We are about to get rid of the electric piano we use in church, to be replaced by a new one – if you would like it, please have word with the Rector today, otherwise it goes....
