During August and September we are going to have a display at the back of church of old furniture, books and records from the history of St. Cyprian's Church. We are going to call it "Delving in the Deep Dark Corners!"

Through this period the church will be open on Thursday mornings between 10.30 – 12.30am for anyone to come and see it. We are also happy to open the church at any time convenient for individuals or groups who can't make Thursday mornings.

Why not invite friends to come along? If you are part of a group, why not bring that group along? Why not take a poster or five, and put up somewhere, and help us to advertise? Hopefully lots of people will want to come along. We will lay on some refreshments whenever we are open.

Christmas Fair this year will be on Saturday 21st Nov.

Summer Teach-in.

Through August we are having some "teaching evenings" when people are welcome to come and together we can spend some time learning more about our Christian faith. This year they will be on Wednesdays, with tea/coffee from about 7.30pm, and teaching session 8.00 – 9.15pm (perhaps 9.30pm if we really get waffling!) The theme this year is "Celtic" Christianity – understanding something of the Celtic expression of our faith.

The remaining programme is:

12th August: The big issues – The growth of nations, control and the Council of Whitby and the mystic reaction.

19th August: Prayer and worship in the Celtic church.

26th August: What's it doing today – The Carmina Gadelica, David Adam and the modern celtic.....

Today is a special day for the Mothers' Union, as in the Anglican calendar we remember particularly Mary Sumner, the founder of the Mother's Union. Mary Sumner wrote a prayer in 1876 which is part of the foundation of the organisation, This is it:

All this day, O Lord,
let me touch as many lives as possible for thee;
and every life I touch, do thou by thy spirit quicken,
whether through the word I speak,
the prayer I breathe,
or the life I live. Amen
