During August and September we are having a display at the back of church of old furniture, books and records from the history of St. Cyprian's Church. We are going to call it "Delving in the Deep Dark Corners!"

Through this period the church will be open on Thursday mornings between 10.30 – 12.30am for anyone to come and see it. We are also happy to open the church at any time convenient for individuals or groups who can't make Thursday mornings.

Why not invite friends to come along? If you are part of a group, why not bring that group along? Why not take a poster or five, and put up somewhere, and help us to advertise? Hopefully lots of people will want to come along. We will lay on some refreshments whenever we are open.

Our next concert is on Saturday 29th August, 7.30pm:

The Viennese Ensemble

A Night in Vienna

Tickets £10 (or pay on the door), from Gavin Boyd, and in church.

Summer Teach-in.

Through August on Wednesdays we are having some "teaching evenings" when we can spend time learning more about our Christian faith. We have tea/coffee from about 7.30pm, and input from 8.00 – 9.15pm (perhaps 9.30pm if we really get waffling!) The theme this year is understanding something of the Celtic expression of our faith. The remaining programme is:

19th August: Prayer and worship in the Celtic church.

26th August: What's it doing today – The Carmina Gadelica, David Adam and the modern celtic.....

Dates coming up in the near future:

Mon 7th September: Vestry meeting.

Sat 12th September: "Doors Open Day," and our next carboot sale.

Sat 19th September: Pet Blessing Service.

Sat 19th September: Concert.

Sat 26th September: Workshop on prayers and intercessions in church.

Sunday 4th October: Harvest.

"God rewards those who seek Him. Not those who seek doctrine of religion or systems or creeds. Many settle for these lesser passions, but the reward goes to those who settle for nothing less than Jesus himself. And what is the reward? What awaits those who seek Jesus? Nothing short of the heart of Jesus." – Max Lucado

Many thanks to everyone who helped at the carboot sale Last Saturday – we made just over £200.
