Sunday 4th October: Harvest.

At our harvest service we will accept food which will be passed on to the Glasgow City Mission. We would prefer the food to be tins or packets, rather than fresh food. I sure they will also accept toiletries as well.

During August and September we are having a display at the back of church of old furniture, books and records from the history of St. Cyprian's Church. We are calling it "Delving in the Deep Dark Corners!"

Through this period the church will be open on Thursday mornings between 10.30 – 12.30am for anyone to come and see it. We are also happy to open the church at any time convenient for individuals or groups who can't make Thursday mornings.

Please note: This coming week is the final week we have the display.

We have already started thinking about our Christmas Fair! It's on the 21st November. Many people have contributed huge amounts over the year, and we are very grateful, and hope they continue to contribute.

This year we invite everyone at church to help. What might you do on the day? We'll ask that again! However, now we are asking – what might you do BEFORE the day. Have you thought of doing anything crafty for this year's fair? Or make jams? Or cakes?

Do you have any ideas or suggestions? We need them! If you think you can do something, or make something – then please feel free to get on with it! However, if you want to talk about it, or unsure about what you might do, please have a word with either Jill Taylor, Aileen Mundy or the Rector.

We do need to start thinking now.....
