Sunday 4th October: Harvest.

At our harvest service we will accept food which will be passed on to the Glasgow City Mission. We would prefer the food to be tins or packets, rather than fresh food. I'm sure they will also accept toiletries as well.

Saturday October 10th is the SWTVC Autojumble at St. Cyprian's, 10am – 3.00pm. Indoor stalls and refreshments – so come along for at least a bacon butty!!!

We have already started thinking about our Christmas Fair! It's on the 21st November. Many people have contributed huge amounts over the year, and we are very grateful, and hope they continue to contribute.

This year we invite everyone at church to help. What might you do on the day? We'll ask that again! However, now we are asking – what might you do BEFORE the day. Have you thought of doing anything crafty for this year's fair? Or make jams? Or cakes? Do you have any ideas or suggestions? We need them! If you think you can do something, or make something – then please feel free to get on with it! However, if you want to talk about it, or unsure about what you might do, please have a word with either Jill Taylor, Aileen Mundy or the Rector.

We do need to start thinking now.....

A man asked a minister to pray for his hearing, so the minister poked his fingers in his ears, prayed loudly, demanding God allow the man to hear. After he asked the man how he felt. The guy said "Don't know, my hearing's not until next week...."
