What do Alexander the Great and Winnie the Pooh have in common?

Same middle name.

I couldn't believe that the highway department called my dad a thief.

But when I got home, all the signs were there.

Have you heard of the soldier who survived pepper spray and mustard gas? He's a seasoned veteran.

The group who volunteered to organise the Christmas Fair met this past week. The group endorsed the conclusions from the congregational meeting which have been in the link the past few weeks, but also decided on one or two other changes.

Perhaps the most significant change is that we will not charge an entrance fee. In the past the entrance fee has also included tea/cakes. This will now be charged for separately. We have done this to help with publicity, and with the involvement of new groups, to help with our invitation to their contacts. Details of this are still to be organised.

For our Christmas Fair Janet Faughey would like cups and saucers – nice and pretty ones. She has an idea..... Please bring them in and pass them on to her!

26th October – ACTS Kirkintilloch service (Action for Churches Together in Scotland) – 7.00pm at St. Ninian's Church in Kirkintilloch.

This is a service to which everyone is invited, and will feature the ministry of the Focolare movement, and how it might have a place in our area.

Everyone welcome.
