Events in the coming weeks:

Next Sunday (8th November) is Remembrance Sunday, and we will particularly mark this in our service at 10.30am. Also next Sunday there is a remembrance service at the war memorial on the Woodilee estate at 2.00pm, which we will be co-ordinating. Come along if you are free.

Saturday 14th November we will be holding a morning on healing, with teaching and worship. This starts at 10 and goes through to 1pm, but you are welcome to stay for lunch after – please bring some butties. This is from the Rector's role as Diocesan Healing Advisor, and is open to people throughout the diocese.

Sunday 15th November is our Annual General Meeting after our service at around 11.45. Please come along to this very important event.

Also on the Sunday after church we would like to set up the church ready for the Christmas Fair, so please send along your muscled relatives to help!!!

Our Christmas Fair is on the 21st November. Many people have contributed huge amounts over the years, and we are very grateful, and hope they continue to contribute. This year we invite everyone at church to help. If you want to know what you could do, please have a word with Jill Taylor, Aileen Mundy or the Rector.

We need all sorts of things! This is a sample:

Homemade stuff: Jams. Marmalade. Pickle. Cakes.

Biscuits.....

Craft stuff – knitted, carved, whittled, crochet-ed, painted.....

Plants.....

Good quality collectibles, fancy goods, bric-a-brac jewellery, Christmas stuff, anything.....

We urgently need jam jars for those who make jams and preserves for the fair...
