"SUMMER TEACH-INS....."

Each year I try to do a "Summer Teach-in" - a few evenings on a particular theme. There will be refreshments from 7.30pm, with input from 8 – 9pm. Everyone is welcome to come along to some or all of the evenings. They will NOT be highbrow!!!!!! This year our theme is "The Big Words," - trying to make sense of the technical words Christians use, and how they relate to our everyday lives. Our timetable and topics this year are:

Wednesday 27th July: Justification.....

Wednesday 3rd August: Sanctification.....

Wednesday 10th August: Incarnation....

Wednesday 17th August: Salvation.....

A Challenge, or invitation.....

Would you like to choose the hymns for a service? Are you thinking which hymns to choose. If yes then don't hang around, please let the rector have your choices in the next day or so.

News and stuff.....

Many thanks to Paul Hindle who worked so hard helping to put up the new shed, and for helping to put up our second shed which is planned for this coming week – great job. Hopefully stuff lying around since the previous shed was removed will be stored in one of them this week.......

Saturday/Sunday 6th August is the Lenzie Open Gardens days. St Cyprian's church grounds are going to be open on the Saturday between 2 – 5pm, to show off what we have done for wildlife, and for the provision of community space, as well as tell others of our plans. We plan to be serving tea/coffee, so if you are free to help, please let the Rector know.

Our next Carboot sale is on Saturday 13th August.....

Also on Saturday 13th August Peter Bladon is celebrating a special birthday with a party at St. Cyprian's at 2.30pm to which everyone is welcome. It is worth letting Peter, Glennis or the Rector know if you are coming so there can be the right amount of food.............

Our church has just received a legacy in memory of Dorothy Patterson, for which we are very grateful...
