by teatime on Wednesday evenings. Thanks.

Summer Teach-in.

Through August we are having some “teaching evenings” when people are welcome to come and together we can spend some time learning more about our Christian faith. This year they will be on Wednesdays, with tea/coffee from about 7.30pm, and teaching session 8.00 – 9.15pm (perhaps 9.30pm if we really get waffling!) The theme this year is “Celtic” Christianity – understanding something of the Celtic expression of our faith.

The programme is:

5th August: Early history – Traders, Civil Servants, Ninian, Patrick & Columba.

12th August: The big issues – The growth of nations, control and the Council of Whitby and the mystic reaction.

19th August: Prayer and worship in the Celtic church.

26th August: What's it doing today – The Carmina Gadelica, David Adam and the modern celtic.....

PRAYERS

Collect for the Week: Almighty God, your Son has opened for us a new and living way into your presence. Give us pure hearts and constant wills to worship you in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion prayer: O God, as we are strengthened in these holy mysteries, may our lives be a continual offering, holy and acceptable in your sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

ANGLICAN: From South Africa: The Diocese of Port Elizabeth and their Bishop, Rt. Rev. Nceba Nopece; and the Diocese of Pretoria and their Bishop: Rt Rev Dr Johannes Seoka.

During August and September we are going to have a display at the back of church of old furniture, books and records from the history of St. Cyprian's Church. We are going to call it “Delving in the Deep Dark Corners!”

Through August and part of September the church will be open on Thursday mornings between 10.30 – 12.30am for anyone to come and see it. We are also happy to open the church at any time convenient for individuals or groups who can't make Thursday mornings.

Why not invite friends to come along? If you are part of a group, why not bring that group along? Why not take a poster or five, and put up somewhere, and help us to advertise? Hopefully lots of people will want to come along. We will lay on some refreshments whenever we are open.

Christmas Fair this year will be on Saturday 21st November.

The Carboot sale on 11th July made a few pence over £346.
