KEYS: With the forthcoming move of the office from its present position into the Vestry, and the change in locking system for the back door, we need to track down who has which keys. There is a chart in church where you can put this information. Could you please put your name on the chart if you have keys, and tick which keys you have. If you have any keys but feel you do not need them, or never use them, could you please return them to the Rector.

From our Rector:

As many of you know, I have to return to hospital for another operation on Friday. I am likely to be in hospital for 5-7 days, and then off for up to another month recovering. Please feel free to visit either in hospital or when I get home – I love having visitors! Maybe best to give Lucy a ring first on 0141 776 3866 before visiting.

Many thanks to everyone who helped at the Carboot Sale yesterday.

Many thanks to everyone who helped in any way for the Lenzie Holiday Club this past week. Today's service at 10.30am – specially designed – is to mark the end of the holiday club week.

What's Really the Story, Ballamory...

Wednesday Evening is our final time looking at well known bible stories. There will be tea/coffee from 7.30pm, then a time of study 8 – 9.00pm.

This week's Psalm:

Psalm 105: 1-6, 116-22, 45

O give thanks to the LORD, call on his name, make known his deeds among the peoples.

Sing to him, sing praises to him; tell of all his wonderful works.

Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.

Seek the LORD and his strength; seek his presence continually.

Remember the wonderful works he has done, his miracles, and the judgements he has uttered,

O offspring of his servant Abraham, children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

When he summoned famine against the land, and broke every staff of bread, he had sent a man ahead of them, Joseph, who was sold as a slave.

His feet were hurt with fetters, his neck was put in a collar of iron;

until what he had said came to pass, the word of the LORD kept testing him.

The king sent and released him; the ruler of the peoples set him free.

He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his possessions, to instruct his officials at his pleasure, and to teach his elders wisdom.

that they might keep his statutes and observe his laws. Praise the LORD!
