Today 31st May is Trinity Sunday, and we welcome again Ken Shaw who is taking our services today.

There has been a request for a workshop on leading the intercessions in church. I am proposing to hold one on Saturday 13th June – 10.30 – 12.00am. My hope is that all those who lead intercessions in church will come along. However, anyone else interested in what the intercessions are about, how they are organised, and maybe interested in leading them, is welcome to come along as well. There will even be tea/coffee before.

Various Celtic morning prayers inspired by our faith in the Holy Trinity – God who is one and God who is three.

May the whisper of the Father be the one that wakens you;
the open hand of the Son be the one that raises you;
the prompting of the Spirit be the one that sends you,
this morning and all mornings, and leads you safely home.

I arise today embraced in the arms of God the Father,
empowered by the strength of God the Spirit,
immersed in the love of God the Son.

I arise today in the company of the Trinity,
Father, Spirit and Son.

I arise today, conscious of the forgiveness of God the Father, conscious of the companionship of God the Son,
conscious of the guidance of God the Spirit, conscious of the unity of the Trinity, Three in One.

With the sun's rising, I rise in God
With my eyes' opening, I welcome the Son
With the day's breaking, my heart wakes to the Spirit.
Amen
