Some “things” coming up:

This coming Thursday - 23rd May – our church will be used for the European elections. Please pray for all those who call in, that not only will they vote well, but that they will be struck by the presence of God in our building. Pray for those manning the station that they will feel a warm welcome in our church.

Our next “Craft and Chat” group is on Monday 26th May, 1 – 3pm. This is an informal group where there is chat – and people bring their own craft projects, if they want, to work on. This could be for you! If you want to know more, have a word with Glennis Taverner.

The next meeting of the vestry (our church council) is on Sunday 2nd June. In the meeting we will be discussing the car park around our church, and how we might re-surface it. Please think about it, what we might do, and let members of the vestry know your thoughts.

Also on Sunday 2nd June - “Praise in the Park” - 7.00pm. This is our annual ecumenical service of praise coinciding with the Kirkintilloch festival. It's at the bandstand in Peel Park, but if wet in the hall of St. Ninian's Church.

Our diocese is now well into the process of appointing a new Bishop – the work at the moment with the “Preparatory Committee,” whose job it is to prepare a shortlist of candidates. Please keep praying!
