I hurt myself at the lemonade factory. I was sent for fizziotherapy.....

Andrew Lloyd Webber once promised Steven Sondheim a Fish and Chips supper. It was getting late and Sondheim was worried there'd be no fish left. Webber sang to him 'There's a plaice for us, somewhere a plaice for us'...

Two ships crashed into each other one carrying Red paint one carrying Blue paint. All the crew were Marooned.....

I mentioned in the magazine that I would organise a time when we can get together to sort out our Christmas Fair. I would like to invite everyone who can help, or interested, or have ideas, to come to the Rectory (58 Waverley Park, G66 2BP) for lunch (soup/bread) on Wednesday 25th September, 12.30pm-ish. Let's all get stuck in and make this year's Christmas Fair the best ever!!!!

Information about our Concert series is available on Facebook. If you are on facebook, why not invite your friends to like the "Music at St. Cyprian's" facebook group, to help us spread the message that St. Cyprian's is a place for great music? The page is:
