At St. Cyprian's we believe God is a God who heals, and believe that people, if they want, should receive special prayer. How do we do that?

By the choir stalls there is a stand which has a pot with some "butterflies" on metal sticks. If you would like special prayer, then when coming to the altar to receive communion please pick up one of the "butterflies" and bring it with you to the Altar rail. If you have a butterfly, then the Rector will pray for you before you receive the bread and wine.

If you come forward for prayer – please don't forget to put the butterfly back after!

You may wonder which butterflies are on the "medals." They are the red admiral, the common tortoiseshell, the holly blue, the speckled wood and the peacock.

Saw a small boy crying in the street, so I asked him what was wrong. He said "I'm lost!"
I asked "Do you know your address?"
He replied "timmy@bt.co.uk."
