The video will also be on social media, particularly our facebook page, as well as other local facebook pages.

If you would like to get something into the Link please let our Rector Les Ireland know on 0141-776 3866 or e-mail rector@stcyprianslenzie.com by teatime on Wednesday evenings.

Please note, for the foreseeable future the Link – our weekly newsletter – will only be available online. If someone wants a paper version, we are happy to print one off and get it to you. Just contact the Rector.

Readings set for 27th June (Pentecost 4):

- Lamentations 3:22-33;
- Psalm 30.
- 2Corinthians 8:7-15;
- Mark 5:21-43

Collect: Almighty God, you have taught us through you Son that love fulfils the law. May we love you with all our heart, all our soul, all our mind, and all our strength, and may we love our neighbour as ourselves; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

I know people are keen to resume having tea and coffee after services. However, the government has delayed our local authority from moving from level 2 to level 1 Covid-19 restrictions. Because of this I regret I have to say I still do not think this is viable, but hope when the next change in protection levels is implemented, we will be able to resume “supping” together.

We were also hoping to be able to sing again – behind masks – but this delay in moving down the levels also delays this as well. Even when we can sing again, we will take things cautiously – singing behind a mask, I’ve heard, may not be a great experience.

Margaret Duckworth, who has been a member of St. Cyprian’s for many years, is moving to St. Andrew’s in the very near future to be closer to family. I’m sure we all wish her well in this her next step in her life’s journey. She will be very much missed here in Lenzie, and at St. Cyprian’s Church.

Through these difficult times we are keen that people don’t feel isolated or in need. If you need help, or simply want to chat feel free to phone the Rector at any time on 0141 776 3866.
