If you would like to get something into the Link please let Paul Hindle know early in the week.

On Thursday mornings we have worship at 10.00am in the choir vestry, with refreshments after, to which everyone is welcome. please enter by the main church door. Today is the final Sunday for our Rector, who is disappearing into "Obscure retirement!" Please join us after our service to celebrate either his going, or his ten years + ministry at St. Cyprian's church!!!!!!

"The Story of St. Cyprian's Church."

Earlier this year the vestry asked if I would write a history of St. Cyprian's church. This is now available in church – cost £7.

I've called the book "The story of" rather than "The history of......" because so much of the past of St. Cyprian's has disappeared in the mists of time.

Our church has so far collected £461-72 for the Bishop's Lent Appeal. If you have any more to donate, please let us have this as soon as possible! This is already a great figure, and I hope a great encouragement to the members of our church who are involved in the Mother's Union "Away From It All" project, which is the "recipient" of money raised by this year's Bishop's Appeal.

Can I apologise for the different and bright colours for the Link in the next few weeks. I had spare coloured paper which I don't really envisage I will be using in the future, and thought this may be a good way to use it up.

THE FLOWER FESTIVAL. 7TH-9TH SEPTEMBER.

If anyone would like to sponsor one of the flower arrangements in memory of a loved one or for an anniversary the leaflets are now available at the back of the church or from Anne Carswell.

Congratulations to Sally Haddon, Maxine Gow and Gavin Boyd who have just completed a course to become worship leaders at St. Cyprian's. They should receive licenses shortly!

St. Cyprian's is about to start a period of "interregnum" when we don't have a rector. It takes a few weeks to get into a sort of rhythm and odd things can go wrong in organisation. Please be patient, supporting those taking up tasks carried out by the Rector. This is a great time for St. Cyprian's to work together towards a new and exciting future.
