Harry Critchlow Memorial Service

Next Sunday 27th October at 2.30pm in St Cyprian's We'll be having a memorial service for Harry followed by the interment of his ashes in the Memorial Garden alongside those of his wife, Avril. All are invited to attend.

From our Interim Priest in Charge:

Journey Event:

We meet again at St James next Sunday (October 27th) from 7-8pm for an evening led by Steve Parratt of the Glasgow Ignatian Centre. Steve will be helping us explore St Ignatias' insights into spiritual discernment by observing the movements of consolation and desolation within us.

It's shaping up to be a very formative evening. Have a wonderful and cosy autumn at a time when our wider world is going through such turmoil.

Church Trip with St James the Less:

Nov 9th to the Riverside Museum, new Clyde bridge and Govan Old Parish church (which has a tremendous collection of early artifacts of Strathclyde.)

We will meet at the museum around 11am, have an early lunch after walking around and then, for those who are able to walk over the bridge to the church which opens at 1. Transport from the church can be provided for those who need it.

Music @ St Cyprian's

Kirkintilloch Kelvin Brass Concert Next Saturday 26th October at 7.30pm

The concert will feature a 10-piece ensemble from the band playing timeless compositions of renowned composer Morten Lauridsen, alongside melodies of The Proclaimers, and captivating music from the Superbrass collection. It's sure to be a great and rousing evening. We look forward to welcoming you there. Tickets are £12.50 for adults (or see below for a season ticket details) children free. Refreshments in the hall at the interval.

The brochure containing details of the six concerts in the season is now available in church and on the web.

We are still offering a subscription at £60 for the rest of the season, a small saving on the single price ticket price of £12.50. We would be very grateful if you would consider supporting this venture. Please fill in the form in the brochure or download an electronic form (see Link email).
