Harry Critchlow Memorial Service

This afternoon (27th October) at 2.30pm in St Cyprian's, we'll be having a memorial service for Harry followed by the interment of his ashes in the Memorial Garden alongside those of his wife, Avril. Refreshments in the hall afterwards. All are invited to attend.

From our Interim Priest in Charge:

Journey Event:

We meet again at St James this evening (October 27th) from 7-8pm for a session led by Steve Parratt of the Glasgow Ignatian Centre. Steve will be helping us explore St Ignatius' insights into spiritual discernment by observing the movements of consolation and desolation within us. It's shaping up to be a very formative evening. Have a wonderful and cosy autumn at a time when our wider world is going through such turmoil.

Church Trip with St James the Less:

Saturday 9th November to the Riverside Museum, new Clyde bridge and Govan Old Parish church (which has a tremendous collection of early artifacts of Strathclyde.) We will meet at the museum around 11am, have an early lunch after walking around and then, for those who are able to, walk over the bridge to the church, which opens at 1pm. Transport from the church can be provided for those who need it.

Caring for Creation - ACTS Service

A week on Thursday (7th November) at 7pm in St Mary's Parish Church, Kirkintilloch, the local ACTS group is holding a service where the speaker will be the Revd David Coleman, Environmental Chaplain. He was chaplain to COP26 in Glasgow and is a very interesting speaker. You can find out more about him by going to:

www.ecocongregationscotland.org/chaplain.

We hope to see you there.

Music @ St Cyprian's

We hope you enjoyed last night's concert featuring Kirkintilloch Kelvin Brass.

We're now looking forward to welcoming Trio Alma (Daniela Hathaway - soprano, Sarah Harrington - cello and Stephen Adam - piano) on Saturday 30th November. They play an eclectic programme of songs from Scottish music to tangos, classical pieces from Vivaldi, Schubert, and Poulenc to name but a few, and songs from the shows, all beautifully arranged by Stephen Adam. Tickets are the usual £12.50 for adults and children are free.
