Collect of the Day

O God, our refuge and strength, the very author of devotion: hear the prayers of your Church; and grant that what we seek in faith we may in fact obtain; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

First Reading Job 19: 21 - 27

Have pity on me, have pity on me, O you my friends,
for the hand of God has touched me!
22 Why do you, like God, pursue me,
never satisfied with my flesh?
23 "O that my words were written down!
O that they were inscribed in a book!
24 O that with an iron pen and with lead
they were engraved on a rock forever!
25 For I know that my vindicator[a] lives
and that in the end he will stand upon the earth;
26 and after my skin has been destroyed,
then in my flesh I shall see God,
27 whom I shall see on my side,
and my eyes shall behold, and not another.
My heart faints within me!

Psalm 90

[1] Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations.
[2] Before the mountains were brought forth or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.
[3] You turn us back to dust
and say, "Turn back, you mortals."
[4] For a thousand years in your sight
are like yesterday when it is past or like a watch in the night.
[5] You sweep them away; they are like a dream,
like grass that is renewed in the morning;
[6] in the morning it flourishes and is renewed;
in the evening it fades and withers.
[7] For we are consumed by your anger;
by your wrath we are overwhelmed.
[8] You have set our iniquities before you,
our secret sins in the light of your countenance.
[9] For all our days pass away under your wrath;
our years come to an end like a sigh.
[10] The days of our life are seventy years
or perhaps eighty, if we are strong;
even then their span is only toil and trouble;
they are soon gone, and we fly away.
[11] Who considers the power of your anger?
Your wrath is as great as the fear that is due you.
[12] So teach us to count our days
that we may gain a wise heart.
[13] Turn, O Lord! How long?
Have compassion on your servants!
[14] Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
[15] Make us glad as many days as you have afflicted us
and as many years as we have seen evil.
[16] Let your work be manifest to your servants
and your glorious power to their children.
[17] Let the favour of the Lord our God be upon us
and prosper for us the work of our hands—
O prosper the work of our hands!

Epistle — 1 Corinthians 15:51-57

[51] Look, I will tell you a mystery! We will not all die, but we will all be changed, [52] in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. [53] For this perishable body must put on imperishability, and this mortal body must put on immortality. [54] When this perishable body puts on imperishability and this mortal body puts on immortality, then the saying that is written will be fulfilled:

"Death has been swallowed up in victory."
[55] "Where, O death, is your victory?
Where, O death, is your sting?"

[56] The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. [57] But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Gospel — John 6:37-40

[37] Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and anyone who comes to me I will never drive away, [38] for I have come down from heaven
not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. [39] And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me but raise it up on the last day. [40] This is indeed the will of my Father, that all who see the Son and believe in him may have eternal life, and I will raise them
up on the last day."
